

Word of the Lord for 2014

Never stop celebrating what I've already done Now expect Me to do the greater and it will come 2014 will be known as the year of the greater!

I'm ready saith the Lord to do a new thing
The likes of which you've never seen
My glory shall come in such a way
That you'll stand in awe
and begin to say
My God, my God,
I never knew
That I would get to see this side of You Such splendor, such power and magnificence too
No wonder the earth will bow down to You The prophets said these things would come to pass
And now they're here—
at last, at last
The greater glory
they spoke about We're in it now—
let's shout, let's shout
A new wave of His glory is what shall be seen For this is His plan for 2014
Our God is taking us to a brand new place
And soon we'll see Him face to face
